

INTERNSHIP OPENING

ARKI_LAB IS LOOKING FOR A NEW INTERN IN COPENHAGEN,
WHO IS PASSIONATE ABOUT DESIGN

Do you want to learn about new methodologies and apply your skills to design inclusive urban spaces? Are you enthusiastic about designing cities with people? arki_lab is looking for an intern who can be part of our interdisciplinary team for a minimum of 30-37 hours per week, where you get a feel of what all that hands-on work is about. We offer a fun and creative work environment, and the opportunity to experience many aspects of working in a small, fast-paced team in our Copenhagen office in the heart of Copenhagen. You'll experience a flat structure, where you are the driver of your own projects, but with competent feedback to ensure that you learn and grow throughout the internship.

YOU WILL:

- Be part of our urban design projects and concept development.
- Contribute to developing our engagement methods.
- Make sure to keep our website dynamic and attractive through contributing new images and graphics.
- Contribute to competitions, fund applications and presentations in close collaboration with other members of the team.

WE EXPECT THAT YOU:

- Are studying landscape architecture, architecture, spatial design or similar
- Are able to start latest February 2017 for a period of at least about 5 months.
- Are a dedicated and independent person, who is passionate about co-creation and urban design.
- Are able to think creatively within the bounds of a company.
- Have experience with Adobe Package and preferably Rhino.
- Good command of English is a plus.

The internship is unpaid.

WHO ARE WE?

arki_lab is an interdisciplinary urban design studio, with a strong focus on democratic processes. We think good cities are diverse that support and nurture the communities, and this begins with inclusive design. That's why at arki_lab we dedicate our work to contributing to the architectural process by involving people.

We develop strategies, analysis, workshops and design spaces with a interdisciplinary approach. Our team comprises of urban designers, architects, anthropologists and sociologist and we are always looking to bring in more expertise and capacity to our team. We've recently opened up a small office in Sydney, which entails that you would be engaged in different projects down under.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION:

Send your application, CV and portfolio to mail@arkilab.dk with "DK Internship/ Design" in the subject line, no later than December 4th. We are looking forward to hearing from you. The sooner the better! If you want to know more about the position you're welcome to contact Yalda Pilehchian at yp@arkilab.dk or at +45 5047 5222.
