

We are looking for a design intern for our interdisciplinary team in Copenhagen

(Native English speaker is a +)

Autumn 2024

arki_lab
Designing Cities With People

Do you love drawing and designing, do you think outside the box and do you want to take part in developing arki_lab projects creatively? Do you study landscape architecture, architecture, urban design or a similar profession? Then you might be our next design intern!

As an intern, you will become part of the daily work at a dynamic architectural office with many diverse tasks. You will work closely with our interdisciplinary team of architects and social science profiles in Copenhagen, and we promise that you will be challenged, involved, creatively engaged, and will learn about urban development and user involvement on many different levels. At arki_lab, there is an open and flat structure where you are encouraged to make your mark on projects, and you will receive professional guidance and a personal mentor throughout the process.

YOU WILL:

- work with collaborative design tasks, differing from strategic urban design to graphics and layout
- create visually inspiring material for project identities, reports and our different social media platforms
- create visual and written material for competitions, fund applications, presentations, tenders and reports in close collaboration with our team
- take part in developing and facilitating citizen engagement processes and work with idea- and concept development
- help handle the daily operational tasks of a small business
- be part of a small team with room for developing your professional skills

WE EXPECT THAT YOU:

- can start your internship in the beginning/middle of august 2024 through 5 months working 30 weekly hours monday-thursday (We are flexible with starting dates)
- are proactive, creative and interested in sustainable and democratic urban design
- have strong skills in Adobe illustrator, InDesign and Photoshop
- are creative, motivated and independent
- have a good proficiency in written English (native English is a plus)

Please don't hesitate to send us an application if you are not a native English
speaker -
We are open to all if it's the right fit!

Send your application, CV and electively your portfolio to: application@arkilab.dk and write “design intern” in the subject field before april 22'nd 2024, or earlier as we will conduct interviews continuously.

The internship is unpaid.
